Wood! Wood! Wood! Any amount of good wood wanted at this office on subscription. Now is the time to bring it in. All kinds of fruit, sweet and Irish potatoes, fowls, corn, oats, hay, and in fact almost any article of produce also taken on subscription.

The 67th Regiment. The number recruited for this regiment now amount to about five hundred men. A few more are wanted in Capt. Spafford's company, now at camp near Toledo.

Election of Justice. The election for Justice of the Peace on Tuesday, passed off very quietly. The following is the result: A. L. Fowler, 89; J. B. Smith, 85; W. F. Pomeroy, 81.

New Goods. Our friend A. G. Williams has just returned from New York with a large supply of new goods. Those desiring to make winter purchases, should call at the store on Front street and examine the goods.

D. W. Poe, Esq. Has received a commission as 2d Lieutenant in the 68th regiment, and announces his intention to recruit a company forthwith. Those desiring to serve their country will find this a favorable opportunity to "fall in." Recruiting office, the Probate Judge's room, at the Court House.

Send the Soldiers the Papers. If the subscribers to the JOURNAL when they have read the paper would put it up in a wrapper, attach a penny stamp and address it to some brother, son or friend who has gone from this county to the war, they would confer a favor which the soldier will never forget, and cheer his heart with many an item of news in his hour of loneliness. Don't forget it, friends.

Horses for the Government. The Fremont Democrat says the agents of the Government have purchased over 700 horses in Sandusky county, during the past few months, at an average price of at least $75 each, which disburses the handsome sum of $52,500 among the people of that county. The number purchased in Wood county, as near as we can learn, amounts to nearly four hundred, for which has been paid, in the aggregate, about $30,000.

Duties of a Local Editor. The libel suit of George W. Bishop vs. James F. Babcock, of the New Haven Patriot, tried in the Superior Court of New Haven, has decided in favor of the defendant. During the trial, on the cross examination of J. W. Newcomb, Jr., one of the editors of the paper, he was asked what he thought to be the duty of a local editor. His reply was: "To pick up news, write out news, get together news, and publish news about everybody that has ever lived in town, about everybody that ever will live in town, or is ever expected to be in town."

The 68th Regiment. The Napoleon North-west complains, and we think very justly, of the efforts being made by certain papers to build up another regiment at the expense of the 68th now forming at that place, by representing that two regiments cannot be formed in this district, and consequently that the 68th will be consolidated with the other. J. J. Vorhes, Esq., of Gilead, is recruiting a company for this regiment, and he assures us the regiment will be raised without doubt if sufficient time is given. The camp equipages, etc., will be on in a few days, when companies that are formed will go into camp.

Postal Matters. We publish elsewhere the call for a postal convention to meet at Toledo, Tuesday, November 19th. The friends of the daily mail arrangement, between here and Portage, should meet and consult over the matter, and be prepared to lay their plans before the Convention with a unanimity of purpose. Likewise the friends of a through route between the friends of Portage route friends the propriety of holding a meeting at Bowling Green on Saturday evening, the 16th inst., at 6 1/2 o'clock. The friends of the Ridge route could hold a meeting at Stony Ridge on the same day and at the same hour.

Central Ohio Conference Seminary. We take pleasure in announcing to the friends of Education of North-western Ohio and the public generally, that the Institution located at Maumee City, known as "Elm Grove Institute," has, by the unanimous consent of the Central Ohio Conference of the M. E. Church, passed under its control and will be opened under the name of the "Central Ohio Conference Seminary," for the admission of students, both male and female, on the 25th day of November, 1861. The property of the institution, at a low estimate, valued at $15,000, was presented by the city council, Jan. 1860, to the Central Ohio Conference. The citizens of the place, alive to the importance of such an institution in their vicinity, have nobly testified their appreciation of the cause by subscribing $1,500 to be expended by the Trustees in improving the premises. The officers have already been appointed, and by the 1st of January next, they will have entered actively upon the discharge of their duties. Of the Principal, J. W. Hiett, we can not say too much; and we are satisfied that by his management the school, under ordinary circumstances, cannot but prosper. The Trustees are comprised of active and competent men, which, with the hearty co-operation of the friends of education in this vicinity, will tend to make it one of the most flourishing institutions in the State. A letter position for a Seminary of this kind could not have been selected. The quietness and general good influences brought to bear upon the youthful mind in Maumee City are considerations which should not be overlooked by parents in sending their sons and daughters, even though it be to a moral and religious institution.

Cheap Bread. Bread is likely to be cheap for some time to come, and if it is well made it is truly the "staff of life," but if poorly made it is truly the "hammer of death." If you use D. B. Deland & Co.'s Chemical Salerator you will have no trouble in making delicious bread and biscuits. Sold by W. J. Hitchcock.

Soldiers' Aid Society.

We are pleased to learn that the efforts of the ladies, in behalf of the needy on the "fronted field," are meeting with signal success. The society has already a respectable list of donations, with many more in prospect. As we have before stated, the purpose of this truly patriotic and benevolent society is to provide, as far as possible, for the sick and wounded soldiers, and furnishing additional winter clothing for those who may stand in need. It is not necessary for us to repeat the desperate stories of the wants of the brave men who have taken their lives in their hands, as it were, in defense of constitutional liberty. It is sufficient to know that the proper authorities have appealed to the people for aid, and notwithstanding something has already been done in this direction, the good work should not yet stop. Donations of clothing, or material to make clothing, consisting of blankets, shirts, drawers, gloves, socks, and divers articles for the sick room, will be thankfully received by the Society, and the donors will have the right to do so. Many articles, we understand, are in course of preparation, and will soon be handed in. Let the good work go on. Remember, contributors, that somebody's son and brother will be made comfortable by these articles, if not your own. Donations will be received by any of the officers of the Society. We append the following:
